Our team of mental health providers are here to guide families through challenging times. We promote respect, show you skills for positive discipline, assist in changes and structure, and teach healthy communication. We provide services for children, teens, adults, individuals, couples, single parents, intact parents, and older adults. Court orders are not necessary to receive services.

The services we provide are court recognized and approved in Santa Clara and many other counties. We have been serving our community since 2008. We have a collaborative team with specialized training areas to assist the needs of families with high conflict divorce, separation, trauma, a history of substance abuse, troubled child-parent relationships, communication break downs, with anger management issues, and co-parenting needs.
