Kyle’s Story

“Taking the NAMI Peer to Peer class opened a new world for me. It was a crucial step in my path of recovery in which I found the support of peers essential for progress. It worked to dispel the stigma I had inherited from our culture about my own condition. I learned from the experience of others and got inspiration, motivation and acceptance. I finally both knew and felt that I wasn’t alone in this type of suffering. In the class I was able to both develop a deeper understanding about mental health and acquire practical skills, all in an environment of mutual support, curiosity, generosity and respect. This educational experience marked a turning point in the course of my life, one that complimented and enhanced my medical treatment and brought a much-needed hope to myself and those around me.”

TESTIMONIALS from our peers and family members clearly express the core values of NAMI-Santa Clara County:

Hope, Empowerment, Support and Advocacy.

With help from friends like you, the National Alliance on Mental Illness-Santa Clara County (NAMI-SCC) has been dedicated to serving the community through education, support, and advocacy for over 40 years.

Research shows that 1 in 5 people are currently living with a serious mental health condition. It is likely that you have a friend, family member, or colleague who is experiencing a mental health challenge. Show them that you care by donating to NAMI-SCC. With your donation, NAMI-SCC can continue its mission of helping people find wellness and recovery.

Last year, NAMI-SCC served 9,700 people through educational courses, community presentations, warmline assistance, peer support, and support groups. In keeping with NAMI’s belief that cost must never be a barrier to increased knowledge and improved quality of life, we charge no fees for our programs, training courses or support efforts.

However, we cannot do it alone. Please consider giving to NAMI-SCC this holiday season. Your generous gift will directly support all of our signature programs, as well as help people in our community find wellness and recovery.

Any amount will help.

Your donation is appreciated and will be used to support our friends, family members, colleagues, and neighbors right here in Santa Clara County.
