NAMI's College Guide, created in partnership with JED, is an online resource created BY college students FOR college students. Browse important topics and resources that support the mental health of college students.