

WALK IN MY SHOES

A CREATIVE JOURNEY TOWARD MENTAL WELLNESS

“Walk in My Shoes” is a unique art therapy-based program designed to educate and empower middle or high school students through creative expression and mental health awareness while designing a shoe that tells their story.

How It Works

Teachers introduce the activity & prepare interested students.

Each student receives:

- 1 blank canvas shoe
 - Fabric markers, Mod podge, magazine clippings & mixed media
-

What's Included

Teachers will receive prep support and Students will receive a structured mental health education presentation, led by a trained NAMI representative.

Why It Matters

- Allows students to express emotions they may not have words for
 - Normalize mental health conversations
 - Support friends and Peers
 - Real stories from youth with lived experience
-

Flexible for schools: Wellness periods, art classes, Advisory or social-emotional learning time

INTERESTED IN BRINGING “WALK IN MY SHOES” TO YOUR SCHOOL?

Contact: Rachel

rcucchiara@namisantaclara.org